

Say it with a Smile!

During the day, going to school, doing homework or playing with friends, we can all experiences numerous emotions.

Sometimes you feel sad... and you don't feel like playing or feeling angry at someone...
without being able to tell them

This is normal!

Imagine how boring things would be if we were always just sad, angry or happy!

Even our characters in Turandot feel different emotions throughout the story.

Read the booklet and try to imagine how the protagonists feel during the story.

Cut out smiley faces with different moods and paste them next to the name of the character.
